

PREFACE

This document has been prepared as a supplement to the Unit History in an effort to make the important events, changes, progress, and developments which have taken place from 1 January 1965 and 31 August 1966 a matter of record.

Every effort has been made to screen all available sources of information and to draw from them such pertinent facts and figures as are necessary to present an accurate and complete narration of the activities and accomplishments of Company A, 101st Aviation Battalion during the period they were in Vietnam.

had happened